

Civilian Coin Challenge
Supporting our military without Politics

Give a coin to an active, honorably discharged, or retired military person.
 Thank a military family member, friend, or stranger in a restaurant, an airport, or just walking on the street “for what they do”.

The Civilian Coin Challenge allows civilians to express their gratitude directly to military personnel by continuing a military tradition of presenting a coin as a badge of honor. The coin represents American civilian recognition of honor, respect, and gratitude to U.S. Military personnel for what they do for every American civilian. The profit from the sale of the Civilian Coin Challenge coins will be donated to improve medical care for wounded military personnel.
